

little less than half of Tulare County watersheds). The results of this project will be explained to the public taking into account community assessments. This will undoubtedly increase the awareness of the risk many households face today. This CWPP will benefit the people of Tulare County and the Sequoia Fire Safe Council in a variety of ways. The Sequoia fire Safe Council is just starting out so, this will create a base for the fire safe council to work from in the future.